Thanksgiving for Baptism

L: Joined to Christ in the waters of baptism, we are clothed with God's mercy and forgiveness. Let us give thanks for the gift of baptism.

L: Holy God, holy and merciful, holy and mighty, you are the river of life, you are the everlasting wellspring, you are the fire of rebirth.

L: Glory to you for oceans and lakes, for rivers and streams.

C: Glory to you!

L: Glory to you for rain, for dew, and for snow.

C: Glory to you!

L: Glory to you for puddles to splash in, for glaciers to marvel at.

C: Glory to you!

L: Glory to you for tears and for spit.

C: Glory to you!

L: Glory to you for the waters below us, around us, above us, and within us.

C: Glory to you!

L: You are the fountain of resurrection.

C: Our life is born in you.

L: Praise to you for the water of baptism and for your Word that names, claims, cleanses, and saves us in this sacrament. Whoosh your Spirit into all these beloved children gathered here and into all of your awesome creation. Light up our days. Loosen up our bones. Take away our shame. Wash away the sin within us and drown the evil around us.

Satisfy all our thirst with your living water, Jesus Christ, our Savior, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

C: Amen.

Prayer of the Day

L: O God, mighty and immortal, you know that as fragile creatures surrounded by great dangers, we cannot by ourselves stand upright. Give us strength of mind and body, so that even when we suffer because of human sin, we may rise victorious through your Son, Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord.

C: Amen.

Reading and Psalm

Assisting Ministers

First Reading: Isaiah 58:9b-14 (read responsively by whole verse)

God promises those who have returned from exile that where justice and mercy prevail, the ruins will be rebuilt, and light will rise in the darkness. It is a day for new beginnings.

Isaiah 58:9b-14

<sup>9b</sup> If you remove the yoke from among you, the pointing of the finger, the speaking of evil, <sup>10</sup> if you offer your food to the hungry and satisfy the needs of the afflicted, then your light shall rise in the darkness and your gloom be like the noonday. <sup>11</sup> The Lord will guide you continually and satisfy your needs in parched places and make your bones strong, and you shall be like a watered garden, like a spring of water whose waters never fail. <sup>12</sup> Your ancient ruins shall be rebuilt; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; you shall be called the repairer of the breach, the restorer of streets to live in.

<sup>13</sup> If you refrain from trampling the Sabbath, from pursuing your own interests on my holy day; if you call the Sabbath a delight and the holy day of the Lord honorable; if you honor it, not going your own ways, serving your own interests or pursuing your own affairs;
<sup>14</sup> then you shall take delight in the Lord, and I will make you ride upon the heights of the earth; I will feed you with the heritage of your ancestor Jacob, for the mouth of the Lord has spoken.

Psalm 103:1-8

L: <sup>1</sup> Bless the Lord, O my soul, and all that is within me, bless his holy name.

C: <sup>2</sup> Bless the Lord, O my soul, and do not forget all his benefits—

L: <sup>3</sup> who forgives all your iniquity, who heals all your diseases,

C: <sup>4</sup> who redeems your life from the Pit, who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

L: <sup>5</sup> who satisfies you with good as long as you live[a] so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.

C: <sup>6</sup> The Lord works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

L: <sup>7</sup> He made known his ways to Moses, his acts to the people of Israel.

C: <sup>8</sup> The Lord is merciful and gracious, slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love.

Gospel Acclamation

L: The holy gospel according to Luke, the 13th Chapter

C: Glory to you, O Lord.

Gospel: Luke 13:10-17

Jesus heals a woman on the sabbath, offering her a new beginning for her life. When challenged by a narrow reading of the sabbath command, Jesus responds by expanding “sabbath work” to include setting people free from bondage.

<sup>10</sup> Now he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath. <sup>11</sup> And just then there appeared a woman with a spirit that had crippled her for eighteen years. She was bent over and was quite unable to stand up straight. <sup>12</sup> When Jesus saw her, he called her over and said, “Woman, you are set free from your ailment.” <sup>13</sup> When he laid his hands on her, immediately she stood up straight and began praising God. <sup>14</sup> But the leader of the synagogue, indignant because Jesus had cured on the Sabbath, kept saying to the crowd, “There are six days on which work ought to be done; come on those days and be cured and not on the Sabbath day.” <sup>15</sup> But the Lord answered him and said, “You hypocrites! Does not each of you on the Sabbath untie his ox or his donkey from the manger and lead it to water? <sup>16</sup> And ought not this woman, a daughter of Abraham whom Satan bound for eighteen long years, be set free from this bondage on the Sabbath day?” <sup>17</sup> When he said this, all his opponents were put to shame, and the entire crowd was rejoicing at all the wonderful things being done by him.
